Irish Folk
Emigrating
Homesickness
Mourning

«Thinking Back to My Dad» is about a woman who left Ireland for love and always has to think back to her old home and her deceased father when the seasons change.

Text / Music

Rose McCan (2021)

Instruments / Vocals

- ▮ Rose McCan: Vocals, guitar, banjo, mandola, mandolin, bodhrán
- ▮ Deean Andreas Utzinger: Keys

Producing / Arrangement / Mastering

mm-productions studios Dübendorf ZH (Deean)

Production background info: In early 2023, Rose handed over her first vocal/ instrumental tracks to Felip Carbonell (IRL), which he cleaned up and mixed traditionally. After mastering in Switzerland, Rose uploaded the song to her website and mx3 as «My Heart Stayed in My Ireland». A year later, she decided to release the song as her first English-language single. Conveniently, she had Felip's cleaned-up single tracks at her disposal, so producer Deean was able to remix everything very quickly, integrate two additional tracks of his own and complete it with Rose's new vocals.
